Obituary

George Wesley Greer

March 10, 1910 - February 27, 2010

George Wesley Greer was born in Galvan, Oklahoma on March 10, 1910 to James and Clara Davis Greer. His formal schooling was in Hot Springs, Arkansas, where he attended Langston High School. He lived in Texarkana, Texas until he started to work with the renowned Billy Rose, who at that time, put on shows and World Fairs all over the Country. One of his memorable experiences was at Joe Louis' summer training camp in Lake Geneva, Wisconsin. George was among those who prepared all the meals for the camp and was able to watch Joe Louis train every afternoon.

George was a World War II Veteran, serving in the U.S. Army from 1941 to 1943. His wartime travels included Scotland and Nice, France. His beautiful penmanship resulted in his being a payroll clerk in the Army. This was during the time when African Americans were either stewards or cooks.

He married Jewell in 1971 and they enjoyed traveling, entertaining friends and working in their yard. She departed this life in September 2001.

George had a beautiful baritone voice and loved singing in his church choir and in the Men's Chorus. He dearly loved working in his church, the Hays Tabernacle C.M.E. Church where he served as Steward and Assistant Treasurer. He was the first Director of the Outreach Ministry started in 1989, which serves the homeless and the needy of the community on every Monday and Wednesday and the last Thursday of each month. In recent years he was named Director Emeritus of the Outreach Ministry.

He retired from the Los Angeles County in 1973, where he had been an Assistant Aid to two Municipal Court judges, two Superior Court judges and one Federal Court judge in Long Beach. He also was a County Process Server. In his leisure time George loved the camaraderie of his friends on fishing trips to lakes far and near, until his health no longer permitted that activity.

He is proceeded in death by both parents and half brothers, Saul Washington and Willie Joe Washington. He is survived by sister-in-law, Lora Washington of Texarkana, TX, nieces: Jackie Wilson and family of Houston, TX, Alyce Crump of Los Angeles, Melba Daniel of Sacramento, CA; nieces and nephews: Thelma and Kenneth Poole and family; Charles and Sharon Weems & Family; Emanuel Northern & Family, all of Kansas City; Robert Weems & Family of Chicago, Illinois and James Howard of Los Angeles.
